

The Wonders
of Gardens,
Italy, &
Family
Traditions

An Italian
Culture
Program for Children

Stories, Songs,
Painting,
Italian Language, &
More

•Italian Culture & Language •Farm to Table •Watercolor Techniques

Join Scuola Italiana di Portland, Italian language teacher Pina Di Rosa, and author, Tonya Russo Hamilton for a fun, interactive Italian Culture Day Camp!

Children will learn about the importance of growing, harvesting, and preparing their own food. They will explore tomato seeds, taste different types of tomatoes, sing songs, play Italian language games, paint a bookmark and prepare their own Italian lunch!

Each child will receive their very own, signed copy of the illustrated children's book,

Tino & the Pomodori.

Saturday, September 24th from 10:00am – 1:00pm
Friendly House in the Pearl, 1542 NW 14th Ave. (14th & Quimby)
Suggested for Children from 8 to 12 Years of Age
$40 per child—To Register or for more info email: info@scuola.us

